

1 →

Art has ebbed away out of our lives and confined to some painters and sculptors. Because we do not admire the aesthetic activity of the creator. We do not recognize the true feelings of artist portrayed by him. It is all means to us as ornament that can be added to things.

2 →

An ordinary man considers the beauty as the work of others. He is not able to recognize it and value it. On the other hand, an artist is a man aware of beauty of universe. Firstly he observes the nature then portrays it in his work for the sake of his own spirits and desires.

3 →

Through art, we can make our lives beautiful and charming. It allows us to see life from a different perspective. It is a tool for exchange of ideas, portraying in our own ways. Adding meaningful values through art make life beautiful.

4 →

Beauty is not an ornament that can be added to things or made by men. It reveals itself either by nature or by aesthetic activity - made by men. It imparts a certain meaning to an object that we ought to recognize and value it.

5→

Art and beauty affects our practical life and morals, it gives us a way to relate our lives with nature. Discovering the nature to satisfy our spiritual desires is a source of pleasure. Even we can create an art to elevate our mood and open our minds to new ideas.