

Nimra Ashab

Batch 328

Mock exams-3

Q.6

A- Use any five of the following in your own sentences to bring out their meanings:

1- Access (Approach)

I have no access to the president of Pakistan.

Excess (More than due)

Excess of everything is bad

3- Goal (Destination)

He reached his goal after facing a lot of difficulties.

Gaal (Prison)

Count sent the thief to the gaol.

6- Minute (unit of measuring time)

There are sixty minutes in one hour.

Minute (tiny, incredibly small)

We can calculate minute digits/values

9

hands of some billionaire rather than its appreciative.

Title:

The commercialization of Art.

Q # 2: Make a Precis and Suggest title.

Art, initially rooted in religion and magic, swiftly transformed into a business. From ~~rich~~ wealthy supporters who are investing themselves with prestige of artists, to museum curators who are promoting artists to increase the value of their collections to have profit in renowned art. So many traders had created a market to ~~make~~ trade these commodities.

At a time when Japanese announced the huge price of these commodities then the economy of Japan suffered. For instance, Pyoer Saito, firstly P bought a Van Gogh's Portrait in huge amount than pay a lot of taxes on it too. The ethical demand of an art is its market value not the conversion of its sale into business. Otherwise it will be soon in the Ans: The movie "Valkyrie" failed to purpose the actual and true picture of Stauffenberg and his struggle. Because Stauffenberg was a man who wanted to protect the Germany from the huge destruction. Though he was the man who was considered to be a chief of staff in future but his abilities was suppressed by the politicians and other generals. His true image and charismatic personality is not fully describe in the film.

3

5

If Stauffenberg had survived the war, the Germany may become more peaceful and developed country. He became the hero of Germany. Though he priority compared to the statue of knight.

- ⑥
- 1- Pakistan is to the west of India.
 - 2- We've put a lot of effort into this project.

Q# 3

Read the following passage carefully and answer the questions that follow.

1- Who was Stauffenberg?

Claus Schenk von Stauffenberg was a German colonel, who had both the ^{determination} ~~feath~~ and the access to kill the Hitler. For this purpose he on 20 July 1944, placed a bomb in the ~~Part~~ Prussian headquarters of the Hitler. He wanted to acknowledge the world that there could be a better Germany.

5

Date: 1/20

Day:

ii) Few people attended the meeting.

Q # 5

A: Punctuate the following passage.

One day, walking together up a hill, I said, "To Friday, do you not wish to be in your own country again?" Yes, He said, "I miss it". "What do you do there if you ever go back?" Said I, "Would you turn wild and eat men's flesh again?" He looked full of concern and while shaking his head said, "No. I was glad to hear this as we gradually kept climbing towards the top."

B: Re-write the following sentences after filling the blanks with appropriate prepositions

- 3 She died of hunger.
- 4 Send this letter to this address.
- 10 We drove along the coastline of California.

that rather, the books being published are intend to bring positive change in the world or if they are inclined towards preserving outdated traditions and practices. From this perspective, when we assess the books being published in Pakistan, it becomes apparent that these books are influencing people's minds with religious biases, sectarian sentiments and unjustified nationalistic pride. This mentality is evident in Pakistan's society today.

Q#4: Correct any Five of the following:

- v) He has four sons but none of them is hardworking.
- vii) None of them was ready to do his work.
- i) At least fifty students were present in the class.
- iv) She is beautiful than all of her sisters.

said we could eat anything there.
Jamil remarked that the brown bread was two month old but there was nothing else but potatoes.
We added that there might be milk somehow.
Jamil confirmed that there had been milk.

Q # 7: Translate the following into English by keeping in view any figurative / idiomatic expression

It is often saying about some books that they had changed the world. The selection of these books is done by intellectual individuals according to their consent and situation.

But as some books change the world, there are also some other books which are responsible for the decline by misguiding the world.
It can be estimated from the publication of books in any society by using digital gadgets.

8- Mood (Temporary feeling or emotions)

Her mood was spoiled because she did not get her favourite ring.

Mood

she could not sleep because mood noise was uttering her.

4- Tyre

The Tyre of my bike punctured while going to university.

Tire (layers, level)

We sat on the upper tire of auditorium.

B- Rewrite the following passage, converting what is in direct speech into indirect, and what is in indirect speech into direct.

Jamil met us and informed us that the valley is all fine but asked that if we knew that there was nothing to eat.

We dismissed his concern and