Title: Parents: Blessing of God.

Parents play an important role in the life of children. Both parents develop the characteristics of their child. Education is a basic element for the development of a child. For example, if a mother is educated, she will teach the whole family. The whole credit goes to the qualified parent. The educated parents develop responsible personalities in their children. Every parent has a priority to spend time with their children as well as provide other facilities. Therefore, it is the duty of children that they obey their parents. And when they are weak in the time of adolescence, their parents are weak, so everyone must help them. Also, provide health facilities and arrange funerals according to religion. Hence, no one can replace the parents' love, affection, and kindness.
