

Ramla Jadoon (27733-Ramla Jadoon-038)

English (Precis and Composition) Mock-Paper

(5) a) Punctuate:-

One day walking together up a hill kept climbing towards the top.

One day walking together up a hill, I said to Friday, do you not wish to be in your own country again? - Yes he said, I miss it - What would you do there if you ever go back, said I - would you turn wild and eat men's flesh again? - He looked full of concern, and while shaking his head said, no - I was glad to hear this as we gradually kept climbing towards the top.

(b) Rewrite only five with appropriate preposition.

- ① Pakistan is in the west of India.
- ② She died of hunger.
- ③ She said it to my face.
- ④ Send this letter to this address.
- ⑤ I'd rather be single than in a bad relationship.

(Q) 6 (a) Use any five in sentences.

① Access :- Access to education is a basic human right.

excess :- excess of sugar intake cause diabetes.

② Bow :- He matched his bow with his tie.

Bow :- Muslims bow only in front of Allah.

③ minute :- just give me a minute to tie my lace.

minute :- He got angry over such a minute disagreement.

④ tyre :- His car's tyre got busted on motorway.

tire :- She began to tire of his nonstop talk.

⑤ Wail :- She wailed over her father's death.

whale whale is the biggest aquatic mammal.

(b) correct the following narrations.

Just as we came in sight of Valley Jarnal met us and asked that the valley is fine but if we know there is nothing to eat. We ~~kept~~ told him that we can eat anything there. He told us that the brown bread was two months old and there was nothing else but potatoes. We asked if that there ~~was~~ must be milk. ~~The milk was there~~. He supposed that the milk was there.

(c) correct any five.

① She is beautiful than either of her sisters.

She is beautiful than all of her sisters.

② He has 4 sons but neither of them is hardworking.

He has 4 sons but none of them is hardworking.

③ Neither the father nor the son wear glasses.

Neither the father, nor the son wears glasses.

④ Less people attended the meeting.

Lesser people attended the meeting.

⑤ Neither of them was ready to do their work.

All of them were not ready to do their work.

(d) Read the following passage and answer.

Colonel Claus Schenk von.....

agent of history.

(i) Who was Stauffenberg?

Col. Stauffenberg was ~~an~~ ^{German} army colonel. He is known for his unsuccessful attempt to assassinate Adolf Hitler on 20th July 1944, by placing a bomb next to him. He was shot in Army Headquarters of Berlin, on order of General Fromm.

(a) How far was the movie 'Valkyrie' successful....
The film Valkyrie failed to portray the charm of Col. Stauffenberg who was beloved by the known people of the country, and was expected to be the future chief of staff. The movie lacked in providing insights of Col's background and philosophy that was in accordance with German traditions of heroes.

(b) Was the plot to Stauffenberg to kill Hitler...
Aulhor believed that as Hitler became more fearful with time, Stauffenberg was seen as the only one who had the plan and means to assassinate him. He ~~was~~ knew that the chance of success were very low, but he wanted to extend a better image of Germany to the world.

(c) What kind of contrasted and complementary....
The Passage talks about the heroic personality and charisma of German Col. Stauffenberg, who is known for his failed attempt to assassinate Adolf Hitler. The passage attempts to glorify the personality and efforts of him and compared him with traditional national heroes. The passage describes him as agent of history and a genuine to plan and kill Hitler, to portray a better image of Germany to world. The passage evokes sentiments of acknowledgment and gratitude towards Stauffenberg, while ~~that~~ of declaring Hitler as an insecure maniac, responsible for ruining Germany's global image.

(d) What would have happened if Stauffenberg if Col. Stauffenberg would have survived the war, he would have defended Berlin against insurrection. He would also have re-attempted to assassinate Hitler and end his aggression with his amazing charisma and charm, he would have inspired and attracted people for the greater cause and must have proven to be a great leader as he fitted the characteristics of a traditional German hero, as declared by Hitler himself.

Q1) Translate the following in English--
Some books are said to have changed the world. Scholars choose these books as per their need and situations but while some books change the world, the other mislead the world and ~~cause~~ ^{are} its responsible for its downfall. The publishing of books, in any society, can give an idea about whether the books are going to change the world for good, or want to keep the world in the clutches of typical traditions. In this context, if we view the published books in Pakistan we can see that these books are affecting people via feelings of religious biasness, sectarianism and baseless national pride. This mentality is reflected in Pakistani society these days.

Q2) write Precise
title: "Trading of Art, just like commodities."
"The Commercial Market of Art"
Precise- Sacred and majestic art became a commercial tool. From upper class, entrepreneurs and museum creators, all used arts for making profit, trading art in markets like commodities. This business of art took a threatening turn in 1980s during the Japanese "Bubble Economy" - Major investments against more than doubled prices were made in west's greatest art pieces. This included private purchase of multi-million dollar art-pieces. Threatened to turn into commercial business, great art can only be gauged via market value - Only one ^{private} museum has the funding to sustain great art. The art may fall into private hands like of investors, collectors and sometimes artists.

Total words: 106.

