

Q1- What has been lamented in the text?

Present text describes the importance of beauty and love on the both personal and community level. A person works honestly if he or she holds honesty within. It develops a sense of satisfaction in their lives, and for them life become beautiful and charming. Furthermore, ~~such~~ the services by such individuals compose a peaceful and beautiful society.

Q2- What is the difference between ordinary man and an artist?

An artist loves his work passionately, and tries to impart his whole spirit in his work. Whereas, an ordinary person lacks this passion and doesnot show honest devotions in his work.

Q3- How can we make our lives beautiful and charming?

We can make our lives beautiful and charming by developing the transformative quality of optimism; by perceiving the blessings that exist around in our lives and in universe.

Q4. What does writer actually mean when he says, "Beauty is not an ornament to life"?

Writer means beauty of positivity is essential for both one's life and for whole society. It is important to make one's life charming and crucial for developing a peaceful society.

Q5- Do art and beauty affect our practical life and morals? Justify whether you agree or disagree.

Yes, art and beauty affect our practical life and morals. Both impart passion in one's life, so he tries to work honestly and with love. Additionally, both art and beauty affect morals too because a person with inner beauty of righteousness possesses good morals; however, one who lacks such beauty holds corruption in his actions.