order due to which absence of merit is enhancing day by day.

As a result it is increasing mistrust in our educated youth on the government. Due to lack of effective policies and injustice in merit bribery is a common thing and through this way many people can get job and other privileges and priority which may result in neglecting the educated and youth who really deserve that job as priorities.

The most profound problem our youth is facing at present is frustration. This master is eating up our youth slowly and gradually. ^{educated} The youth in Pakistan don't have jobs, means of health entertainment, health resources. and Saddest of all our youth are committing ~~ster~~ suicide. These all

- the neglect of educated youth.

Another factor behind this fact is exclusive boom in the population. An estimated 103 million or 63 per cent of the population fall under the age of 25 years.

Male youth literacy rate is estimated to be 53 percent and female youth literacy rate is even lower at 42 percent. And further increase in population is diverting the attention from the existing youth, and this division of attention is ~~causi~~ the main reason of neglecting educated youth. So explosion in population is also a cause of neglecting them.

Moreover, Our country is also facing the lack of effective policies, lack of law and to lack of resources they are unable to get and pursue their field of interest. Poverty is a sort of disease which is weakening our youth. They are unable to fully use their talent and serve their country. And though the government is not in the condition to help them to establish their business, the country is on the edge of the precipice of default, or as people now say Pakistan is already in a situation of virtual default. According to Renowned economist Dr. Atiy Mian of Princeton University, the country has already defaulted and is now dependent on the various bailout packages of IMF.

Because of grim and uncertain conditions of homes, poverty is being a handle in establishing businesses and thus resulted in Unemployment is the major problem faced by our youth. After completing their education, they are failed to find a job to utilize their skill. In the last election, Govt. promised 10 million jobs to the youth but they failed to fulfil it. At present, Pakistan is facing the highest unemployment rate in the region. Over 60% of the young population are working in low-paid and unstable jobs. Due to this factor their skills and education is no more in use and they are being rotting out. So, one can say that unemployment is the major factor of neglecting the educated youth in Pakistan.

The other main reason of neglecting ^{educated} youth is poverty. Due youth can be utilized for the progress of Pakistan.

Nowadays, educated youth is being neglected due to which country is facing a lot of problems. Despite constituting a major chunk of our population, youth are lagging behind in every field. due to lack of support. They are afflicted by an identity crisis, lack of self-confidence, a sense of hopelessness and confusion, and ambiguity concerning about moral issues and the future. They are trapped in a cultural marked by gun, violence and drugs and all this has resulted in an unstable economy, a shattered confidence of foreign investors, lawlessness and a break-up of the social fabric.

Every citizen of the country plays an important role in the progress and development of a country. But the youth is the most active part of the country.

Everyone knows that the educated youth is the building blocks of a country. Pakistan has one of the largest young populations in the world. According to the UNDP report of 2017, 64% of the population of Pakistan consist of youth. And ~~this~~ skilled and educated youth can play important role in the progress of the country.

But utilization of educated youth in Pakistan has been neglected altogether. Consequently it has some dire negative impacts on political, economical, educational and social system of Pakistan. However, by taking some vibrant and effective measures educated
