

28504

Mock - 3

English Preis &amp; Composition.

- Q4.
- i) No more than fifty students were present in the class.
  - ii) Few people attended the meeting.
  - iii) Neither the father nor the son wore glasses.
  - iv) She is beautiful than her sisters.
  - v) He has four sons but none of them is hard working.

Q5 A. One day, walking together up a hill, I said to Friday, "do you not wish to be in your own country again?" "Yes," he said, "I miss it." "What would you do there if you ever go back?" said I. "Would you turn wild and eat men's flesh again?" He looked full of concern and while shaking his head said, "No". I was glad to hear this as we gradually kept climbing towards the top.

Q5. B.

1. in
2. from
3. in front of
4. to
5. up

Q6. 1)

Access: As I have paid the registration fee, I can now access my student portal.

Excess: Cars running on gasoline emit fumes in excess amount.

2) wail: The women of my town wail in mourning.

Whale: The whale is the largest mammal on the planet.

4) Tyre: We got a flat tyre on our way to the mountainous region.

Tire: Household chores tend to tire a person out.

6) minute: The invigilator announced that the class has 5 minutes to complete the test.

minute: The ant is a minute creature compared to an elephant.

7. Bow: I like to tie my hair up in a bow.

Bow: To show respect and gratitude, Japanese people often bow down in front of others.

Q7. It is considered that some books have greatly impacted the world, the scholars select these books based on their wish and circumstances, however, there are some books that transform the world while others lead the world astray and are responsible for its deterioration.

~~In~~ ~~to~~ The publication of books in any society gives an idea whether these books will change the world or are these the repetition of out-dated traditional books made to keep us imprisoned to our worn-out customs, therefore, in accordance to this perspective if we review the published books of Pakistan, we can see that these books are influencing the minds of the readers through its religious, national and the minority sector views and this view is prevailing in the Pakistani society.

6B

Tamil said, ~~the~~ although the valley is very fine, there is nothing to eat. We didn't not believe him and thought we ~~can~~ <sup>could</sup> eat anything.

He said the bread the two months old and he just has potatoes.

We asked if there was milk. and

~~yes there was~~ he said, "Yes."

Q3.

1. Stauffenberg was a soldier, who was hired by his senior to kill Hitler by setting up a bomb in his base but he ended up failing this mission.

2. The film is portraying most of the plot which was true and is based on actual events but it has failed in giving us correct view of the disastrous end and the propaganda that <sup>was against,</sup> Germans ~~are~~ and nor does it show the true ~~per~~ intimidating personality of Stauffenberg.

3. Yes, the plot was justified as he wanted to show the world that there can be a better Germany which is hidden. ~~Even when~~ He knew that the chances were less to succeed he still ~~took~~ ~~took~~ managed to leave a lesson for the mankind.

Prestigious Art and its ownership

Previously considered sacred, Art, has now become a commercial commodity. It is now being funded by patrons who have little to no knowledge of it. Furthermore, entrepreneurs have begun investing in it. Moreover, thieves and speculators have aided this trade. Investments in art in Japan doubled with the share prices. Royce Saito enraged the public through his statement of cremating Van Gogh's painting with him that he had purchased for 82.5 million dollars only to spare his ~~trav~~ heirs the inheritance tax. The museum representatives asserted that art is the possession of the world. Despite the ethical appeals, art can only be validated by its market value which the world does not acquire. Currently, just one ~~single~~ museum has funds for the best pieces.