

Q. Read the following text carefully & answer the questions below:

1- Human being fear of death and child's fear of darkness are same because both are increase by other stories and circumstances in children the fear of darkness increase by the stories of ghosts and thieves in adults. The fear of death increase by the circumstance and ceremonies of death more than death itself.

2- A religious and sacred view of death means make and entry into another world. and law of nature.

3- Monks described the painful experiences in his book that they underwent by inflicting physical tortures upon themselves as a form of self-purification. Thus, one may think that the pains of death must be indescribably agonizing. Such a thoughts increase a man's fear of death.

4. The view of Seneca about death is that the ceremonies of death frighten people more than death itself do. A dying man body shaliking bloodless face and pale, make death more horrible than it.

A dying man is heard uttering groans; his body is seen undergoing convulsion; his face appears to be absolutely bloodless & pale; at his death his friends begin to weep and his relations put on mourning clothes; various rituals are performed. All such facts make death appear more horrible than it would be otherwise.
