Translation:-

History is full of those successful people who started their life with a lot of difficulties but ^{in future,} they will be included in successful and honorable personality.

It is not easy to get success, respect and glory. Only wealth can be given to you easily. For this, there is a ^{compulsory} condition that your forefather have property that will be given to you. Through wealth, you can buy worldly things but you can't buy happiness. Sometimes, human spend many decades for earning respect whereas for earning dis-respect, one moment is enough.
