

Nabi Bakhs

Batch: 329

LMSID: 27994

English precis and composition

PART-II

Q.2

Precis

Title: Art: a belonging of wealthy people
Irrespective of its origins, art very soon became popular and beneficial. All sorts of people, including housewives, Museum caretakers, even thieves enjoyed the art as trading like other everyday essentials. But soon after the 1980s, it became a business of wealthy and rich businessmen. And the art slipped from the common hands to business tycoons. Even today its transfer is in the hands of investors and collectors. The rest cannot access it easily.

Words in passage	=	290
Required words	=	96
Words in precis	=	74

Q. 3

Answers

1. Colonel C.S.V. Stauffenberg was the person who wanted to kill Hitler, and placed a bomb in his East Prussian Head Quarters.
2. The film Valkyrie successfully explained the facts that why he wanted to kill the Hitler, but failed in manifesting the moral and political degradation of Germans.
3. No it is not justified.
4. In this passage contrasted sentiments are that Stauffenberg's background, history and philosophy has been ignored. What were the factors which led him to the attempt of killing Hitler. While complementary sentiments are if that he was a gallant personality, and ~~praised~~ by Generals.

5. Stauffenberg could be the successor of Hitler as Chief of Staff if was not killed by his superior general Fromm.

Q. #4

Correct sentences

- (i) No fewer than fifty students were present in the class.
- (ii) A few people attended the meeting.
- (iii) Neither the father nor the son wears the glasses.
- (iv) ~~He has four sons, but none of them is hardworking.~~
- (v) He has four sons, but none of them is hardworking.
- (vi) Neither Road leads to the station.

Q.5 (A)

punctuated passage:

One day, walking together up a hill, I said to Friday, "Do you not wish to be in your own country again?" "Yes!" "I miss it." "What would you do there if you ever go back?" said I, "would you turn wild and eat men's flesh again?" He looked full of concession and, while shaking his head, said, "No!" I was glad to hear this as we gradually kept climbing towards the top.

(B)

- (1) Pakistan is to the west of India
- (2) she died of hunger
- (3) Send this letter to this address
- (4) I'd rather be single than in a bad relationship
- (8) We have put a lot of effort in this project.

Q. NO. 6 (A)

pair of words used in sentences.

Words

Sentence

Access

After a five minutes waiting, he accessed to the manager

①

Excess

Excess of everything is bad whether it is food or medicine.

Goal

The main goal of my life is to serve the people

②

Goal

The thief was arrested by police and is now inside goal.

Tyre

Due to rough driving, Arsalan punctured the tyre of his vehicle.

③

Tire

I am tired of my profession; it is time to change it with another

minute
In competitive exams,
most of the papers
have 180 minutes
to solve the paper

③

minute
A minute quantity
of budget is allotted
every year for education

Bow
The arrow left
the bow swiftly
and hit the target

⑦

Bow
Muslims bow down
before the Allah Almighty only.

(b)

Just as we came in sight of the valley Jamil met us
and said that yes! the valley is very fine. He further asked if we did know there was nothing to eat. We exclaimed with wonder that we could eat anything there. He said that well! ~~brood~~ brown broods, two months old, and there was nothing else but potatoes. We asked him if there ~~was~~ might be ~~any~~ milk anyhow. He supposed that there had been milk.

Q.7

Translated paragraph

It goes without saying that some books have revolutionized the world. Such books are selected by intellectuals according to their will and the situations. However, some books become the causation of misguiding and declining of the world. It can be appraised from the publishing of books whether they are revolutionizing or anchoring to ill-traditions.

From this point of view, if ~~we~~ we analyse the published books in Pakistan, we can, easily, observe that these books—based on religious discrimination, sectarianism, and ultra nationalism—are affecting the minds of masses.

Which can easily be observed in today's Pakistani society.