

Q1:- What is the difference b/w human being fear of death & children's fear of darkness?

The difference between human being fear of death and children fear of darkness is that Human being is afraid of death because of the stories he have heard about the pain of dying man and on the other hand children are fear of darkness because of the fearful ghosts and thievers stories.

Q2 What is a religious and Sacred view of death?

The religious and sacred view of death is that human being regards death as a punishment of his evil deeds in the world. He also looks upon the death as a mean to enter <sup>into</sup> another world.

Q3:- What are the painful experiences described by Monks in their books?

Monks have described the painful experiences in their book. They inflict physical tortures upon themselves as a form of self-purification. Such type of books increases the man's fear of death.

Q4:- What are the views of Seneca about death?

According to Seneca, the circumstances which cause death and post-death rituals create an irrational fear of death in the minds of people.

Q5:- What are the facts that make death more horrible than it would be otherwise?

The facts that make death more horrible are the groans of a dying man, his bloodless and pale face, mourning clothes of his relatives and all the post-rituals make death more frightful than it is otherwise.