Q1. Work without love, beauty and aesthetic spirit has been lamented in the text. It has been mentioned in the text that objects without beauty are like actions without moral activity. Majority of people do not recognize this lack of beauty in their works.

Q2. The difference between ordinary man and an artist lies in the aesthetic spirit which is exercised by an artist and lacked in an ordinary man. He discovers the beauty of universe and imparts that beauty in his works. While an ordinary man does not have this sort of art in his works.

Q3. We can make our lives beautiful and charming by exercising an activity of spirit. By doing so we will satisfy our spiritual desires.

Q4: When the writer says, "Beauty is not an ornament to life", it means that beauty is not just for pleasure like an ornament, added to things for which we pay extra. Rather, he is of the opinion that Beauty is not an ornament to life, it is an essential part of it. Beauty is an aesthetic activity. It shapes objects as moral activity shapes actions.

Q5: Art and beauty affects our practical life and morals in many ways. Art and beauty are essential parts of men's life. Beauty shapes the life as does the art. When people utilize their aesthetic beauty and art in their work, it gives them satisfaction of life, thus shapes people's lives and morals. Beauty gives us new patterns of life to spend. Art makes our morals according to it or vice versa. In this way, I am agreed to the statement that art and beauty so affect our personal life and morals.
