

Name: Agsa Ali

Batch = 47

Consid =
27476

Q#1)

Writer in the text has highlighted that with the passage of time art has been lamented. Only few artists and painters practiced it. Art has been declined due to lack of aesthetic sense of ^{ordinary} people. People used to think of art as an ornament, that a person can attain by giving money. On the other hand, artists utilized his aesthetic sense in the piece of art he makes. Thus, ~~we~~ people should value the beauty as it satisfy spiritual desires.

(Q#2)

The difference between ordinary man and an artist is that an ordinary man lacks aesthetic sense and do not see art as a beauty. He thinks beauty as source of pleasure and an ornament whereas all artists utilize their aesthetic sense in the art they makes. ~~Artist~~ is much aware of the beauty of ^{the} Universe. ~~that~~ and he ^{tries to} imparts the beauty in ~~the~~ his art work.

(Q#3)

We can make our lives beautiful and charming by recognizing the importance of art. Art gives oneself aesthetic sense. It fulfills one's spiritual desires.

Q#4)

Beauty is not an ornament to life highlight the writer point that mostly people consider art as an object that one can attain by giving money. Art and beauty is considered as a source of pleasure. On the other hand, writer believes that it is significant part of life. It develops aesthetic sense that is important for a person to recognize the universe' beauty. It satisfy spiritual desires of the artists. Work without beauty is nothing.

Q#5)

Yes, art and beauty affect our practical life and morals. Art and beauty helps us to understand our surroundings. It makes a person feel alive. In our busy lives, art helps us to appreciate things and have gratitude towards our creature. It generate empathy and allow us to have a deeper understanding of others emotions. It ^{helps in} still self-respect toward other culture. Not only this, it ^{also} promotes new ideas.