

- 1- Habit of not recognizing the aesthetic activity of spirit, and men who don't do anything for sake of beauty.
- 2- Ordinary men don't recognize the aesthetic beauty/activity of spirit while an artist sees aesthetic beauty in things and value moral activity in actions.
- 3- We can make our lives beautiful & charming by exercising the aesthetic activity in discovery of beauty in the universe. by ~~and~~ satisfying the spiritual desire.
- 4- If we think beauty as, a mere source of pleasure, and therefore it means to us ornament. But it's not an ornament to life or to things ~~that~~ made by man. that's what writes actually meaning. "Beauty is not an ornament to life"
- 5- Yes, art and beauty effect life in the sense that, they both explores and shows the actual meaning of natural things. They shape the moral activity and ~~be made~~ be made us see things in better, aesthetic way.
