

Read the following.
Make précis.

① What is the difference between human beings' fear of death and children's fear of darkness.

Human being is afraid of death, if he commits sins and takes death as a kind of punishment, death is a scary thing to him while a children get frightened by the ghosts or horror stories. Human being has coward attitude towards death while children are innocent by nature.

② What is a religious and sacred view of death?

The religious and sacred view about death is to believe on it to look upon it like entering from one world to another. Human beings think it as a punishment of their sins whereas death is only a natural process to enter the next world.

③ What are the painful experiences by the Monks in their books?

Monks have a different belief about death and they have described death as a painful experience in their books. According to them they have to pass through some body torures to get self purification.

④ What are the views of 'Seneca' about death?

According to the views of Roman philosopher (Seneca) the death itself is not too horrifying but the ceremonial death ceremonies made by human beings ~~are~~ are so terrible. These ceremonies ~~are~~ have

⑤ What are the facts -----

When a man dies, he hears the groans of people, goes through many body pains, his face turns pale and body becomes bloodless, his friends and relatives weep on mourning and then several ceremonies or rituals are performed at the end, this makes death as a horrible process.