

Test

Answer: 1

The civilization problem lamented in the text, which is, that the history had been created by the people who were discoverers, nature lovers as well as holy persons. Much chances have been given to the learners to learner to be like these but ignore to teach ~~how they can become~~ one of them and how to be helpful for others, nature lovers and to be a ^{real} artist and if they follow what will they become.

Answer: 2

The difference between ordinary man and an artist is crystal clear. The ordinary man ignores to discovered the universe beauty by paying less attention to creative activities which ultimately give pleasure to spirits. ~~Contrary to this,~~ an artist is deeply observed of nature and always try to ~~sp~~ search new things in nature and portray it in his painting.

Answer : 3

We can make our lives beautiful and charming by searching beauty of nature and give more attention to the activities which help in exploring the secrets of nature and universe.

Answer : 4

The writer means by saying "beauty is not an ornament to life" beauty alone does not make life liveable. It only beautifies the living experience. Life become beautiful if we ~~wrote~~ focus on both the beauty and the creative activities to search the beauty of nature.