English Précis
Test - 3Importance of Education and good upbringing

Education plays an essential role in the development of a child. This role is usually fulfilled by parents.

Therefore, it is of utmost importance that both parents are qualified.

Their qualification helps instill in their children good characteristics.

Many people are able to ~~achieve~~ flourish due to their parents' teachings.

Thus, it is upon the children to look after their parents when they are older, as they were taken care of during childhood. In conclusion, it can be said that parents are irreplaceable.
