

Zoya

Asb-online-49

Q: 4

1) No fewer than fifty students were present in the class. (8)

2) Few people attended the meeting.

3) Neither the ^{father} (son) nor the son wear glasses.

4) She is more beautiful than either of her sisters.

6) Neither road leads to the station.

Q: 5 (A)

One day, walking together up the hill, A said to Friday, "Do you not wish to be in your own country again?" "Yes", he said, "I miss it." "What would you do there if you ever go back?" said A, "Would you turn wild and eat men's flesh again?"

 He looked full of concern and while shaking his head, said, "No". I was glad to hear this as we gradually kept climbing towards the top.

(B)

- 1) Pakistan is in the West of India.
- 2) She died of hunger.
- 3) She said it to my face.
- 5) I looked this word up in the dictionary, but I still don't understand it.
- 7) I'd rather be single than be in a bad relationship.

Q: 6 (A)

1) Access

I need to access the vault.

Excess

Excess of everything is bad.

2) Wail

She wailed at her mother's funeral.

Whale

Water is the whale's habitat.

3) Goal

Ronaldo managed to goal twice in the last hour.

Gaol

He spent 15 years in gaol.

4) Tyre

We need to replace the tyre of the car.

Tire

Do not tire yourself out by working too much.

6) Minute

The fault is too minute to be noticed.

Minute

I waited for twenty minutes.

(B)

We met Jamil just as we came in sight of the valley and he said that the valley was very fine but did we know if there was anything to eat. We replied that we could eat anything there and he said that the brown bread was two months old and there was nothing else but potatoes. We said that there must be milk in any case. He responded in affirmation that there had milk.

Q:7

It is said about some books that they changed the world, intellectual people used them according to their will and circumstances but just like some books change the world, there are some books that misguided the world and are responsible for its backwardness. In any society, by publication of books we can guess ^{that} whether these books that are published are going to change the world or want to tie it down to obsolete customs. By this perspective, if we analyse the books published in Pakistan so we can see that these books inculcate feelings of dogmatism, sectarianism, nation glorification in the people. We can see it in practise in Pakistan's society.

Q : 2

Art ; property of tycoons

Art became an enterprise despite having spiritual origins. It started from funding art to profit making with time by trading art. In 1980s, Japanese tycoons invested money in West's art. Saito bought a Van Gogh's portrait at a record price. Museum representative made an ethical appeal to let the art be the possession of people. However, it will become a commercial venture because great art has great market value. General masses ~~cannot~~ cannot acquire these masterpieces. They might become private property. However, it will devolve the static wealth to artist.

Words count : 90

Q : 3

1) Stauffenberg was the man who tried to kill Hitler. He planted a bomb in Prussian headquarters next to Hitler. Though the plan failed and

Colonel Stauffenberg was killed.

2) Most plot of the movie "Valkyrie" match the facts. However the movie failed to convey moral and political whirlwind that the Germans faced. It also failed to portray the charm of Stauffenberg who for a while was considered the future chief of staff. The movie ignored his history and philosophy.

3) In the writer's opinion, Stauffenberg wanted to become the agent of history. He is portrayed as a saviour who wanted a better future for the people of Germany. Even though his chances of success were slim but he took the chance for his country.

5) The coup was orchestrated to kill Adolf Hitler. Although, the plan failed. However, if it had been successful and had Stauffenberg lived, He might have been appointed as the new Chief of Staff and Germany might have changed as well.

4) The passage highlights the character and struggles of Stauffenberg to save his country. It also talks about the movie "Valkyrie" that failed to do justice to the character of Stauffenberg.