

Kainat Kanwal
(OB-04)

Q1: What is the difference b/w human beings fear of death and children fear of darkness?

Ans: The difference between human beings fear of death and children fear of darkness ^{is} that: the children fear of darkness ^{is} because of the ghosts and thieves stories but the fear ^{is} of human being ^{is} because of the torture ^{is} of dying man. Both fears are very different from each other.

Q2: What is the religious and scared view of death?

A2: The religious and scared view of death is that the human beings considers death as a kind of punishment of all of his bad deeds which he committed during his life time and he also thinks that ~~the world~~ he is going to enter into a new world after death.

Q3: What are the painful experiences described by the Monks in their book?

A3: The Monks in their book explained the painful experience of death as to administer physical torture on themselves as a form of self purification and may think it as a pain physical and mental pain which cannot be described. These kind of books brings fear of death among human beings.

Q4:- What are the views of Seneca about death?

Ans:- According to Seneca, ^{the} a Roman Philosopher said that the rituals, ceremonies and circumstances brings more fear of death in human than the death itself. A dead body is bloodless, pale and the weeping and mourning cloths of his friends and family ~~scared~~ ^{scare} human beings a lot more than the death itself would do.

Q5:- What are the facts that make death appear more horrible than it would be otherwise?

Ans:- The facts that make death more horrible otherwise it would be ~~are~~ ~~are~~ the pale and bloodless dead body, Mourning cloths and weeping of friends and relatives and all the circumstances and rituals being performed.