

Parents are blessings of God

Parents are blessings of God. Both have eminent role in bringing up a child. The most important thing in life of child is education, for a prosperous future and the personality with good traits inculcated by the parents to be successful in life. The parents withstand the children in every situation. Therefore, it is the duty of children to do the same as their parents did. They cannot pay back their parents for absolute love and kindness. That is why no one can substitute parents in this world.

words in passage: 269 words words in précis  $\approx$  89 words

---

---