

ENGLISH-COMP-TEST-2

Name: Afsheen Sultan

Batch: 49

Ums-ID: 28513

Ans-1

The fear of death in human beings is intensified by stories they heard about the pain and helplessness of a dying man. Whereas, Children's fear of darkness is intensified by the stories they heard about ghosts and thieves.

Ans-2

According to the religious and sacred view of death, death is a kind of sanction for evil deeds. It also states that, death is a way to enter into another world.

Ans-3

Monks described painful experiences in their books which they endured by ill-treating themselves physically for the purpose of self-purification.

Ans-4

Seneca views about death state that the circumstances and the rituals of death terrify people more than death itself.

Ans-5 :

The facts like sighs of a dying man, his body undergoing seizures, his pale face, the grief and agony of his friends, the mourning attire of his relatives and the ceremonies ^xperformed^x carried out at his death, make death appear more horrible than it would be otherwise.