

Precis: Writing:Title: Parents: The Irreplaceable Blessings

The writer narrates that parents are the greatest gifts of God for humans as they play a major role in the upbringing of their children. Education is one of the most important features that parents must have. The well-educated parents make their children excel in every step of their life. Moreover, such children become responsible, disciplined, obedient and loyal to their parents, to other people and to their homelands. Later, the successful and thriving children always give credit of their success to the parents who actually focused on their education. Parents usually spend all their lives and resources and resources for the well-being of their children. Thus, it is an ultimate responsibility of the children to help them, in their daily activities. Undoubtedly, parents are irreplaceable blessings because of their love and kindness.

Words Count:

Original Paragraph: 374

Precis = 124