TRANSLATION:

History is full of such successful people who started their life with difficult situations but later on they were included in the successful and famous personalities of the world. Success, respect and fame are not easy to gain. Only wealth can be easily gained, even it also has a condition that you will get wealth in case your ancestors have assets. You can buy worldly necessities with wealth but not happiness. Sometimes it takes decades to earn respect but only a moment is enough to be humiliated or controversial.
