

Name: Umm-e-Farwah 039 RWP

Q1 What is the difference between human beings' fear of death and children's fear of darkness?

Ans The human beings' fear of death is responsible to the account of sufferings, they learn, of dying man. Whereas, the fear of darkness among children is due to the horror tales they hear.

Q2 What is a religious sacred view of death?

Ans If a person takes death as a mere transition from one world to another world and he perceives death as a bridge that helps him enter a new world, he holds a religious and sacred view of death.

Q3 What are the painful experiences described by the monks in their books?

Ans The monks have narrated the physical torture they ~~do~~ perform as a mean of self-purification. They have stated the unbearable pains they inflict upon themselves to purify their bodies from the sins.

Q4 What are the views of Seneca about death?

Ans According to the Roman Philosopher Seneca, it's not 'death' that frightens the mankind, rather, it's the ceremonies and the grim situation that follows after a man dies. The gloomy sight of the ceremonies horrifies people more than ^{the} death.

Q5 What are the facts that make death appear more horrible than it would be otherwise?

Ans The facts that make death more horrible than it would be otherwise are; watching the dying person in pain, the senseless body with a pale face, when his dear ones cry over his departure and the trauma his loved ones have to go through.