

Q. 3 (Comprehension)

①

Stauffenberg was a colonel of Hitler's army. He was against Hitler because of his inhumane actions and his perpetrated brutality in Germany. Stauffenberg with his Senior General made a coup to kill Hitler by placing a bomb in Hitler's Prussian headquarter. But he could not succeed and was shot by his same senior General, who was involved in planning.

②

The movie "Valkyrie" tells true about the planning of murder of Hitler but it remained unsuccessful in depicting the actual brutality and catastrophic behavior of Germans. It does not show the complete and hard journey and struggle of Stauffenberg. It failed in presenting the powerful personality of Stauffenberg.

③

The author tried his best by justifying the struggle of Stauffenberg to kill Hitler. Though he could not succeed in his effort but he had a great personality which had great impressions on other generals and politicians. By explaining the charisma of Stauffenberg's personality, the author justifies his effort.

④

In the passage, the differences of opinion of Seeing and making Germany as powerful country was given. The Sentiments of Stauffenberg to demonstrate Germany as a better country, was the hidden perception of him. These two kinds of sentiments are presented in the passage.

⑤

If Stauffenberg would not die, we would surely make a better Germany before the World. His perception was for the well-being of Germany and due to his charismatic personality, we would be the German hero.

Q. 7 (Translation)

It is often said about some books that they changed the world.

The intellectuals select these books according to their will and circumstances. But where books change in the world, there are also some books which are responsible for the demise of world by putting it on wrong way. From publishing of books in any society it can be estimated that whether these publishing books are for the transformation of world or these catch the world in downtrodden traditions. From this point of view, if we analyse the books that publish in Pakistan, we come to know that these books are effecting

the minds of people through the religious prejudice, separatist emotions and sentiments of ^{useless} national pride.

The expression of this mentality is visible in Pakistani Society.
