Q2-

Today, art has lost its profound spirit because it is now a commercial product to be sold in industry of art. The industry which aim is to grow its market only. Firstly, this trend started in Japan and now prevailed in entire world. For instance, consider the industry of museum. An artist needs certification of validity from museum, then sold here where major portion of earning goes to museum owner. If the artist fails to get approval then its art might be vanished and no one knows about this tragedy.
