

Name: Raahima Ahmed
Batch: 15b OB#47

MOCK EXAMS

Date 14-6-23

ENGLISH - PRECIS

Qn:- "Artwork Overpowered by Business Investors"

Precis:

The real essence of art was soon demolished by advent of commercial domain. The ~~the~~ field of elite class used to fund museums and expect artist to express ~~their~~ respect to their precedents in order to enhance the market value of art. This was later harmed by entrepreneurs and promoters to trade it as a commodity. This can be demonstrated by Japanese giants who invested huge amounts in late 20th century on the west's greatest artworks. The Ryoei Saito was among the ~~one~~ investors who purchased Van Gogh's portrait, which was on loan to the museum. The art was later vanished from public display. Upon inquiry, it was learned that the Ryoei owed taxes to the government. He showed no dignity to the prestige of the great works by making a joke and unethical remarks. The museum address that ^{the} possession of work is for the whole world and made an ethical appeal to Ryoei. The increase of business in the art can result into the certification only by its market value, less funding to hold art in museums and deliberate moves to transfer art to private investors leaving public empty handed.

Q3:

Compassion.

1. Stauffenberg's full name was Colonel Claus Schenk, who was a close ally of Hitler, whom Hitler described as the reflection of a true German hero. Stauffenberg attempted to kill Hitler but failed in attempt resulting in his death penalty by his deceived senior.
2. Although the movie "Valkyrie" was inspired by true facts, but it failed to depict the true picture and struggle of Stauffenberg. His familial background, ~~and~~ ideology due to chaotic of German history and his struggle to lead the Germany which shaped his personality was completely unaddressed. Thus, the movie was not so successful in presenting ~~the~~ his true picture.
3. According to the opinion of writer, the plot by Stauffenberg to kill Hitler was justified. As he was in close association with him, he had an easy access and ability to kill Hitler. Moreover, he wanted to take German out of abyss created by him and establish "Better Germany" in the world.
4. There are many contrasting and complementary sentiments evoked in passage. As the passage started with the emotion of failure, resulting in death of Stauffenberg. Its contrasting sentiment of hope can be illustrated by his keen efforts to take Germany out of the hostility of Hitler. Later on, deceiving nature of human, illustrated by the senior of Stauffenberg, who was also on the plot tried to save himself and deceive him to death. In the end, of passage, the enrage of Stauffenberg for the paranoid behaviour of Hitler and efforts to kill him can be demonstrated.

Date _____

5. If Stauffenberg had survived the war, he would have changed the fate of Germany. The menace caused by his hostile ideology could have been countered by charismatic and genuine personality of Stauffenberg. He could have become the reason for the "Better Germany".

Q4:

Sentence Correction:

3. Neither the father nor the son wears glasses
4. She is beautiful than any of her sisters
5. He has four sons but none of them is hardworking
6. None of roads leads to the station
7. None of them was ready to do his work.

Q5: a.

Punctuation:

One day, walking together up a hill. I said to Friday, "do you not wish to be in your own country again?" "Yes" he said, "I miss it". "What would you do there if you ever go back?" I said "I would you turn wild and eat men's flesh again?" He looked full of concern and while shaking his head said, "no." I was glad to hear this as we gradually kept climbing towards the top.

b. Fill in the Blanks (Prepositions).— (Five)

1. She died of hunger
2. She said it on my face.
3. Send this letter to this address
4. We drove to the coastline of California
5. Pakistan is to the west of India

Q6. a. Word Usage in Sentences - (Five)

1, Access:

Government should access ~~that~~ its policies for the betterment of country in various economic domains

Excess:

Excess use of tobacco leads to lung cancer.

2, Wail

Recent floods have wailed the agriculture of the country

Whale

Whale is the largest mammal in the world

• Goal

The ~~ultimate~~ goal of ~~human~~ is ~~content~~ and satisfaction.

~~Goal~~

3, Tyre

She got late to the meeting, because she was stuck with puncture of her car's tyre.

Tire

He called for a night, because he was tired

4, hue

The road was blocked due to the spreads of long hue

hue

The opaque mirror shows hues of glitter.

5 minute

They will reach to attend party in any minute.
minute

Minute ^{existence} ~~particles~~ of micro-organisms in food can create contamination

B. Re-write the passage:

Just as we came in sight of the valley, Jamil asked us that ~~that~~ indeed the valley was all very fine, but did we know there was nothing to eat? We showed anger and told him that we could eat anything there. He said that the brown bread was two months old, and there was nothing else but potatoes. We asked that there must be milk anyhow. To which he supposed and said that ~~that~~ there was milk.
↳ Yes,

Q7. Translation:

It is generally said about many books that, they changed the world. Intellect people select those books according to their will and conditions. But where ^{ever} ~~can~~ books can change the world, they can also be responsible for the down grade of the world. This can be estimated by the publication of books in any society that whether they will innovate the world or bind ~~to~~ to the chains of effete traditions. On this content, if we overview the published books of Pakistan, we can see that these books effect the minds of people with religious envy, Seperatist feelings and unregulated nationalism. ~~This is~~ The expression of ideology ^{that} can ~~be~~ ^{is} seen in Pakistan's society.