

Comprehension Test - 2

Gram Aftab

Batch # 39

28170 - Iram Aftab - 039

Q no. 1

What is the difference between human beings fear of death and children's fear of darkness?

The writer has shown the resemblance between human's fear of death and children's fear of darkness. Both humans and childrens got afraid after having a look on the stories they heard about death and darkness respectively.

Q no. 2

What is a religious and sacred view of death?

According to religious and sacred view of death, humans may get what they have sowed. They will be punished for their bad deeds and vice versa. Death is basically a shifting of soul from one world into another.

Q no. 3

What are the painful experiences described by the Monks in their books?

Monks have depicted the grim picture of death in their books. According to Monks, man has to endure physical torture in case of bad deeds, he had committed before death.

Q no 4

What are the views of Seneca about death?

Seneca views about death is altogether different from Monks. Death is not as horrible as it has been presented in front of humans. According to Seneca, death is not about something to be scared but the incidents we have associated with the death make the humans frightened.

Q no 5

What are the facts that make death appear more horrible than it would be otherwise?

Uttering groans, convulsion of (death) dead body, bloodless and pale face, weeping and various rituals make the death appear more horrible (that) than it would be otherwise.