History is imbued with such successful people who started their life with extremely difficult conditions but later on they became successful and famous personalities in the world. The success, popularity and respect cannot be given inherently rather, only money can be given inherently. But it is compulsory that you must hail from a land lord family, only then you can avail money. One can buy worldly commodities by money but cannot buy happiness. Sometimes it takes centuries to earn respect but a moment is enough to become defame.
