

English Comprehension Test #2

LMS ID: 28289-Bahar Ismail-039

Batch#039(Rawalpindi)

Question: 1

What is the difference between human beings' fear of death and children's fear of death?

The human beings' fear of death is as obvious as children's fear of darkness in such a way that human beings' fear of death is raised upon such stories, that when a man has been dying, come across very painful and suffering situation, which seems more realistic to them, that one must has to pass from such miserable condition. Similarly, when children feel scared of darkness when they hear stories of ghosts, monsters and kidnapers from their parents that seems more realistic to them in their time as well. So they associate their fear with darkness.

Question: 2

What is a religious and sacred view of death?

If a person thinks of death as a kind of punishment for his wrongdoing and bad deeds, and he looks upon death as a route of entry into another world. He thinks that he must has to leave this world after death, he surely has to take a religious path in order to get high rank, and he must consider a sacred view of death. Because he must ^{be knowing} know the reward of taking a good path.

Q
Question: 3

What are the painful experiences described by the Monks in their books?

The painful experiences that Monks have described in their books, shared the state/moments of sufferings when they tortured themselves so that they can get purify themselves. Thus, a person in this way may think about the pain of death that must also be indefinable and extremely painful.

Q
Question: 4

What are the views of Seneca about death?

Seneca, the Roman philosopher, was of the view that the ceremonies and rituals of death seen by people frighten them more than the death itself.

Q
Question: 5. What are the facts that make death appear more horrible than it would be otherwise?

A dying man is often seen in a miserable state.

The circumstances around the dying person and the rites and rituals after death such as crying and weeping, mourning state of family members and relatives that all make people more heartsick.