

Name: M. Nabeel

LMS

Glass: 28827

Batch

Section: 49

Date: _____

English Comprehension Test-2

(Q.1)

Ans: Human beings' fear of death is about the end of life, yet a man thinks that he will leave this beautiful world, his family, and his wealth. On the other hand, a child fear is strange that is created by others, yet a child thinks that something will catch it.

(Q.2)

Ans: A religious and sacred view of death is about another world after death that is hell and heaven according to religion. If one should commit a sin, he will punish for his sin. In religion, the concept of death is totally different that giving hope in another world.

(Q.3)

Ans: The Monks in their books describe the physical and mental torture of people for purification in this world. They tell you that this torture will be forgiven your sins. Thus, this concept of agonizing in the Monk's book boosts a persons fear of death in this world.

(Q.4)

Ans: Seneca's view about death is such ceremonies and traditional activities of death, conducted publicly, cause more fear in the mind of people. People see how others die in this world that is unbearable for them. Hence, Seneca's view is the type of criticizing the Monk's point of punishment.

(Q. 5)

Ans: The physical appearance and crying of the dying man are the reason for the mourning of his friends and family. The bloody and pale face and other activities at this moment are uncontrollable. Hence, these facts create more the fear of death in people than normal death.