facing unemployment (The Nation)
The First and important reason is access to quality education. Pakistan's education system is weak the Annual budget allocation for education is less the quality of teachers are poor the instituted lack the basic resources which makes it even worse likewise, the other factor include unfairness on limited seats. Even in government sectors the seats are reserved for a family member or friend. Pakistan is facing the evil of different forms which can ultimately cause the problem of unemployment. Rich Aristocracy can be seen in different sectors of Pakistan and those who cannot afford are left out. This is the reason why the educated youth is neglected similarly, some times lack of skill can be seen in the educated youth. This is the focus of topic is neglect of their utilisation despite them having education i.e. qualification Problem is linked with the weak education system. Although students get 14 years or 16 years of education but they lack the very basic knowledge and skill. It is because of the theoretical knowledge which
