(b)

d. It is also the result of misunderstanding that the protests during the different waves in Pakistan from very beginning are speaking about the separate rights of women, not the equal rights of women, men and other genders also. As it was the same situation during first and second waves of feminism in U.S.A and Europe since 1850s to 1970s, but after that the feminists of third wave neglected, rejected that concept and spoke for the equal rights of all genders, but is not the case in protests and slogans raised by feminists here in our society which is also the clear misunderstanding of the concept of feminism.

(c) The protests conducted only in the favour of the rights of women resulted the one-sided protests, and other genders which need the rights like LGBTs did not support the concept of the feminism given here in our society. Example?
The actual concept of feminism is movement of rights for all genders but lack of understanding resulted to speak only for the rights of women. Not your current argument

4. Feminism; the clearly understood concept in our society: wrong word

(a) Feminism is a clearly known concept in our society, everyone knows women here in our society are depressed due to ill treatment and they are not given their fundamental and basic rights.

this is your counter argument.
do not support your thesis in this, and feminists protests for the protection of their rights. But it is being deliberately with deceive manner shown that feminism is not clearly understood concept in our society. If it is so then why people join and participate the protests.

(b) The feminism is not against the social norms of our society; the few misinterpreted slogans can not decide the concept and demand of feminism. That few slogans shown in social media are itself right but misinterpreted deliberately to defame the feminism which is only to get the all genders specially women their right which are badly violated.

c) Neither it is against the religion;
but it is against the misinterpretation of the principles of religion, no religion suggests the cruelty over women as is being done to them.

And no religion permits the violation of fundamental, the inherent and human rights of women and other minority genders. The slogan man are misinterpreted, they itself do not contradict the religious norms of any religion.

on social media, when undecaded women, who participated in the protests, when ^{were} asked they did not know even the meaning of feminism, so ~~the~~ it needs the awareness to make the people understand the concept of feminism.

b) The slogans are also against the social norms of our society; the slogans which

Irrelevant

I have mentioned above can not be shown in our society, every society has its own norms, and feminism works subject to these norms but in our society the concept of feminism itself is misunderstood.

(c) The misunderstanding of the concept of the feminism also resulted that that slogans went against the fundamental principles of the religion which is not acceptable followers of the religion.

being not given their basic and fundamental rights, but here in our society the misunderstanding of the concept resulted to only speak about the rights of women.

6. Conclusion:

The feminism is not clearly understood concept in our society. As the who are calling themselves the main part of the feminism here in our society many of them do not understand the main concept of the feminism which results ⁱⁿ the misunderstanding in the minds of common people and the followers of feminism also. The slogan rejected by majority of this society of the result of the misunderstanding of the concept of feminism by the writers of those slogans.
