

Test - Ward, Batch #50

Title:- Parents; a blessing for children

Indent the paragraph.

Parents are the divine gifts to the children. Mother and Father should have some attributes, a qualified mother inculcates good manners and courage in her child. The success of children comes because of the attention of parents. Parents must be paid off with attention by the young children. Parents always struggle for the kids, so in return children should have a kind attitude towards the parents. There is no exchange of parent's love.

Suggested titles: Educated Parents: a catalyst for bright future

Avoid cutting.

Total words = 70

a-Significance of educated parents
b-Lead to responsible, patriotic and skilful youth.

c-Later, children give credit to their educated parents for their success
d-Lastly, the writer has mentioned children duties towards their old parents; from catering their needs to performing their death rituals wholeheartedly.