

ENGLISH Comprehension

TEST - 2

Name: Alina Tahir

Batch: 51

LMS ID: 29058-Alina Tahir-051

check the comment for the feedback.

Answers

1- Human being's fear of death is the fear which arises due to stories that they hear about agony of dying man. While children's fear of darkness arises due to stories which they hear about ghost and thieves.

2- Religious and sacred view of death is that death is a kind of punishment for one's sins which one <sup>has</sup> committed in this world. Hence, after death, he will be entered into another world.

3- Monks describe the painful experience of self-purification method in their books. It describes about inflicting physical tortures upon themselves.

Date: _____

Day: _____

as a form of self purification.

4- Seneca is the Roman Philosopher who gives his views about death. His views are that death itself is not frightening but it is circumstances and ceremonies which make it frightening.

5-

There are few facts which actually make death horrible. These include as saying dying man can be heard uttering groans, pallor and bloodless face appearance and death time convulsions. Moreover, mourning of relatives at dear ones death and rituals make it horrible.