Translation:

We always keep checking on people. We are always in search of friends but all we ^{get} got are enemies on every step. Friends have to ~~search~~ ^{be found} but enemies are available ready-made. Then again that question ^{arises} ~~rise~~ in mind that who is this enemy? Every man has hundred or thousands of people in life. Life has to ^{be spent} spend with these people. We can not live alone. Friends, relatives, neighbours, people of town, friends and many others are part of ^{our} life. It is a matter of whole life. Although we can not understand many people, ^{yet} ~~still~~ we can not live ^{apart} apart from them. Sometimes, relation has to ~~carry out~~ ^{be maintained} just on compulsion and expediency.
