

Comprehension

(1)

Answer: The difference ~~between~~ between human beings' fear of death and children's fear of death is that children are afraid of physical or mental harm which can be the imaginary thieves and ghosts, told them in stories, can cause them in darkness. And, human beings' fear of death involves the described pain at the time of death.

(2)

Answer: The agony of death is the punishment for evil deeds of men. And, death transforms man from one world to another world. This view is a religious and based view of death.

Feedback:

- a- Answer must start from the question statement
- b- It should be of at least 2 sentences; single sentence answer is not permissible
- c- Do not add your own opinion unless you are asked for; ideas must be contextual to the passage
- d- Avoid replicating phrases from the passage; you may extract/copy words from it.
- e- Give a closing end to each answer
- f- Ideal length of answer is 5-7 lines. Avoid too lengthy answers
- g- Also, do not begin answers with the words, "Yes, No, And or Because"

(3)

Answer: Monks describe in their books the ways of self-purification. They explain the self-punishments and fasts they have to bear during the self-purification process.

(4)

Answer: The death itself does not frighten people. But, suffering of body and funeral ceremonies of death make it more horrible. This is the view Seneca has about the death.

(5)

Answer: Dying man gives; his body shivers, his face seems to pale — these bodily sufferings make death more horrible. Also, the funeral ceremonies and lamenting friends and family relatives make it more frightening.