

01
ns The difference between human being's fear of death and Children's fear of darkness lies in factors enhancing these fears. Man seem more anxious on listening the Stories of a dying man; while Children appears more fearful when they listen horror tales. Thus, both fears differ from each other.

02
ns A religious and sacred view of death is a man's religious approach towards the death.
A man considers death as a penalty for his wrong
deeds. Furthermore, he takes death as an entry door towards an other world. That is why, this perception of a man is a religious view of death. ✓ 25

Q.3

Ans.

The Monks had described the painful experiences in their books. Such experiences, they had felt during their self-exposure to physical ill-treatment. Hence, the Monks had ~~mentioned their sufferings in their writings.~~

Q4

The views of Seneca about death are related to conditions of death. He considered state of death and funeral ceremony as responsible for generating fear among people. That is how Seneca perceived about death.

2

Q.5

Ans. There are certain facts that make death more terrible than it would be otherwise. These ranges from grunting of dying man, physical changes in his body mourning by his friends and relatives and other funeral activities. Hence, ~~all such factors seem frightening to a human being.~~

Feedback:

- a- Answer must start from the question statement
- b- It should be of at least 2 sentences; single sentence answer is not permissible
- c- Do not add your own opinion unless you are asked for; ideas must be contextual to the passage
- d- Avoid replicating phrases from the passage; you may extract/copy words from it.
- e- Give a closing end to each answer
- f- Ideal length of answer is 5-7 lines. Avoid too lengthy answers
- g- Also, do not begin answers with the words, "Yes, No, And or Because"