

Q1- What has been lamented in the text?

The Present text describes the importance of beauty and love on the <sup>incorrect interpretation</sup> both personal and community level. A person works ~~honestly if he or she holds honesty within~~. It develops a sense of satisfaction in their lives, and for them life become beautiful and charming. Furthermore, ~~such~~ the services by such individuals compose a peaceful and beautiful society. <sup>read the passage carefully again</sup>

Q2- What is the difference between ordinary man and an artist?

An artist loves his work passionately, and tries to impart his whole spirit in his work. Whereas, an ordinary person lacks this passion and doesnot show honest devotions in his work.

ans is too short and not a detailed difference has been given

Q3- How can we make our lives beautiful and charming? → ans according to the passage not according to yourself

We can make our lives beautiful and charming by developing the transformative quality of optimism; by perceiving the blessings exists abound in our lives and in universe.

Q4. What does writer actually mean when he says, "Beauty is not an ornament to life"?

Writer means beauty of positivity is essential for both one's life and for whole society. It is important to make one's life charming and crucial for developing a peaceful society.

Q5- Do art and beauty affect our practical life and morals? Justify whether you agree or disagree.

Yes, ~~art~~ and beauty affect our practical life and morals. Both impacts passion in one's life, so he <sup>he who?</sup> tries to work honestly and with love. Additionally, both art and beauty affect morals too because a person with inner beauty of righteousness possesses good morals; however, one who lacks such beauty holds corruption in his actions.

attend to pointed out issues

need improvement in expression read the passage carefully and ans according to the passage only

6/20 not satisfactory