We observe people all along our life - we seek for friends but get enemies frequently. Friends are base. Foes are numerous. Again the question knocks the mind that who is enemy? Every person has hundreds of people in their life.
 Life needs to be spent with them Family, relatives, neighbours, society, well wishers, friends and many more ~~are~~ ^{have been} part of our life. Its the mystery of life. Many people are complex to understand but still we can not get off with them.
 Several times helplessness or one occasional diplomatic purpose hold up the lies.
