

Precis:

Commodification of Art

Title: Art: An interesting subject for masses.

Precis:

For bourgeois, the Art have always been a market place to share their prestige of Art among in their talents among many of the elite in the society. As in 1980's, Japanese were very much interested in showing their master pieces of aptitude and selling it at higher costs in the market places. Artists also consider their Art as an opportunity to increase their profits within the business. And by boosting its value in the market place. The author says that art for brings fortunes to whom ever it visits and especially to the artists. But robbers and speculators already created a ~~total market~~ trade market ~~world~~ for such commodities long ago.

Total words : 448

word count : 108

Q. 3

Passage

1. Who was Stauffenberg?

Answer:

Colonel Claus Schenk von Stauffenberg

On July 20, 1944, a man named as Colonel Claus Schenk von Stauffenberg placed a bomb next to Hitler. It was placed in the Wolf's Lair ~~Hitler's~~ in the east ~~also~~ named as Prussian headquarters.

2. How far was the movie 'Valkyrie' successful to present the true picture of Stauffenberg and his struggle?

Answer:

The film "Valkyrie" failed to convey any sense of the catastrophic moral and political pool. Also it failed to give any sense of the immense attraction of Stauffenberg. Film ~~for~~ also give out to provide the indications of Stauffenberg's background and philosophy.

3. Was the plot by Staffenberg to kill Hitler justified in the opinion of the writer?

Answer:

In the writer's point of view the plot created by Staffenberg was illogical and unjustified as for the killing of Hitler. Although he fitted perfectly into the German traditions and culture. But it was not rational.

4. What kind of contrasted and complementary sentiments are evoked in the passage?

Answer:

Contrasted sentiments were that both Hitler and Staffenberg wanted to make Germany under their control but with different techniques and strategies. Although Staffenberg was aware of the results but he wanted that badly.

Complementary sentiments related to both ideologies was the same as to rule Germany and become an agent in the history.

5. What would have happened if Stauffenberg had survived the war?

Plz answer the question

Answer:

If Stauffenberg would have survived the war He would be on the status of knight hood of the time. Everyone knew that he fitted perfectly into the German tradition, he had the classic features. He would have ruled the German but in a way very different way from the Hitler.

Q4 - Correct five of the following

- 1) Few people attended the meeting.
- 2) None was ready to do their work.
- 3) Neither father nor the son were wearing glasses.
- 4) Neither of roads lead to the station.
- 5) He has four sons but none of them is hardworking.

Q5. Punctuate the following passage.

One day walking together up a hill I said to Friday, "Do you not wish to be in your own country again?" "Yes", He said, "I miss it" "What would you do there if you go back?" He said, "I would you turn wild and eat men's flesh again". He looked full of concern and while shaking his head said, "No". I was glad to hear this as we gradually kept climbing towards the top.

B- Rewrite the following sentences after filling in the blanks with appropriate Prepositions

- 1- Pakistan is in the west of India.
- 2- She died because of hunger.
- 3- Send this letter to this address.
- 4- I'd rather be single than in a bad relationship.
- 5- We've put a lot of effort in this project.

Q6- Use any five of the following in your own sentences to bring out their meanings.

Date: _____

(M T W T F S)

1- Access: The Investigation Agency have complete access of the data.

Excess: They have excess of resources but they ~~don't~~ do not know how to utilize them.

2- wail: She wailed on the death of her father.

whale: The whale was caught by the fishermen.

3- Goal: The goals of the firm managed to ~~reach~~ were high which helped them to achieve success.

Goal: The prisoners goal in Mumbai is empty since Monday.

3- Bow: The color of his bow was black.

Bow: She bowed towards her majesty.

4- moored: Children after seeing cows in the garden started to moo in front of it.

Mood: Father's mood was not so good to ask for the money.

5- Minute: Minutes of meeting were calculated by the secretary.

Minute: The minute of the meeting was presented in front of the President.

B. Rewrite the following passage, converting what is in direct speech into indirect and what is in indirect speech into direct.

Just as we came in sight of the valley Jamil met us and he ~~said~~ ~~the valley is~~ ~~very fine~~ and informed us that ~~there was~~ ~~nothing~~ to eat. We replied him by saying nonsense.

Learn the rules of narration and attempt again

Jamil replied that the brown bread was two month's old and there was nothing else ~~er~~ but potatoes. We asked him that if there might be milk. On this he replied affirmative, there was milk.

Date: _____

M T W T F S

Q7. Translate the following into English by keeping in view any figurative/idiomatic expression.

~~There are some books that have changed the world.~~ And these books are chosen by the intellectual people according to their will and upon the situational context.

But where Do not attempt word by word change world also there are some other books which mislead the world and also are the reasons for backwardness. Any society can easily be judged upon the publishing of the books whether and tells whether it will lead or make the society narrow in perspectives. And Attempt in idiomatic and

proverbial manner

if we overview the books publishing

in Pakistan, we can see that these books are having putting great impacts on the people of Pakistan

as they hold religious ideas,

ethnic emotions and unnational

emotions in the minds of people.

This mentality is seen in Pakistan today's Pakistani

society.