Suggested titles: Educated Parents: a catalyst for bright future

Ideas

- a-Significance of educated parents
- b-Lead to responsible, patriotic and skilful youth.
- c-Later, children give credit to their educated parents for their success
- d-Lastly, the writer has mentioned children duties towards their old parents: from catering their needs to performing their death rituals wholeheartedly.

God has bestowed us with our parents. The two play an important role in personality development of an infant. For a child to be respectful, the parents must be educated. Both mother and father splurge their time and money to raise their children. Therefore, children should nourish their parents when they get old, as the life-time parenting job can never be substituted.
