Parent's Role in Children's Development

Parents are divine blessing and play a crucial role in child's life. For better upbringing of kids, parents should ~~have~~ possess certain characteristics, education being the fundamental trait. Educated parents impart civility and obedience in their children. Many accomplished people credit their parents' teachings for their success. Qualified parents also develop a sense of duty in their children's personality. Therefore, when children grow-up, they should take up the responsibility of looking after their parents, providing them with medical care and properly arranging a proper funeral if they ~~any~~ pass away. In short, parent's love is irreplaceable.
