

English Comprehension Test

Q1 what is the diff between human's fear of death and children's fear of darkness?

Ans Children fear darkness because they are told horrible stories about the dark, their fear increases by listening to the existence of ghosts and encountering them in the dark. Similarly, human's the fear of death is instilled in humans when they hear about the unbearable pain of dying man.

Q2 what is religious and sacred view of death?

Ans when a man considers death as a means of entering into another world, where he is going to be accountable for his doing and compensate for the sins he has committed in this world, he is having a religious and sacred view of death.

ans is correct
but never write ans
in a single sentence
it is structurally incorrect

Q3 what are the painful experiences described by the Monks in their books?

Ans The Monks wrote in their books how they experienced pain by inflicting physical tortures upon themselves in the name of self-purification. This reminds them of the

too short

upcoming pain of <sup>the inevitable</sup> death

Q: what are the views of Seneca about death?

Ans: Seneca says death is not as painful as it is described. The rituals and ceremonies of death are the things that spark fear in the hearts of people. When people see the dying man groaning, experiencing convulsion, and his face turning white out of pain - the people around him weep and put on mourning clothes, and many other <sup>rituals being</sup> activities practiced there. This ~~looks~~ <sup>more</sup> death <sup>agonizing</sup> than it really is.

makes

↓
appear

Q: what are the facts that make death appear more horrible than it would be otherwise?

Ans: There are many facts which show death as more horrible such as the stories of dying man's experience of death, the monks' books written on ~~death~~ <sup>death</sup> and how they inflicted physical torture in the name of self purification, <sup>and</sup> the rituals and ceremonies of people at the death of a person. All these things instill fear in the hearts of humans about the painful experiences of death.

ans are correct

single sentence ans is incorrect format
over all ans are correct in content and sense

8/20