

- 1- Habit of not recognizing the aesthetic activity of spirit, and men who don't do anything for sake of beauty.
- 2- Ordinary men don't recognize the aesthetic beauty activity of spirit while an artist sees aesthetic beauty in things and value moral activity in actions.
- 3- We can make our lives beautiful charming by exercising the aesthetic activity in discovery of beauty in the universe. ~~by~~ satisfying the spiritual desire.
- 4- If we think beauty as, a mere source of pleasure, ~~and~~ ~~therefore~~ it means to us ornament ~~but it's~~ not an ornament to life or to things ~~that~~ made by man. That's why we write actually meaning "Beauty is not an ornament to life".
- 5- Yes, art and beauty effect life in the sense that, they both explore and shows the actual meaning of natural things. They shape the moral activity and ~~remake~~ us see things in better, aesthetic way.

ans are too short and non of the make sense of have the correct and single sentence ans is not correct format basic grammar is too weak read the passage carefully give test in a format atiquette next time this type of casual writing will not be entertained 0/20