OB-39

According to the author, Parents, the blessings of God, should have the following indispensable features for the upbringing of their infants. Education is the most basic thing for better growth of a child. The educated parents make their child good-mannered. Many successful people give credit of their goals to their parents. The parents develop in their children many dynamic attributes. As parents spent their life's energy on children, the latter should also be obedient and compassionate towards their parents in their old age. Also, the love, affection and kindness of parents is not replaceable.
