

ENGLISH-COMP-TEST-2

Name: Afsheen Sultan

Batch: 49

Ums-ID: 28513

Ans-1

The fear of death in human beings is intensified by stories they heard about the pain and helplessness of a dying man. Whereas, Children's fear of darkness is intensified by the stories they heard about ghosts and thieves.

Ans-2

According to the religious and sacred view of death, death is a kind of sanction for evil deeds. It also states that, death is a way to enter into another world.

Ans-3

Monks described painful experiences in their books which they endured by ill-treating themselves physically for the purpose of self-purification.

Silvia

Ans-4

too short Ans

Seneca views about death state that the circumstances and the rituals of death terrify people more than death itself.

Ans-5 :

The facts like sighs of a dying man, his body undergoing seizures, his pale face, the grief and agony of his friends, the mourning attire of his relatives and the ceremonies performed carried out at his death, make death appear more horrible than it would be otherwise.

Single sent ans are correct but never write more than 2 lines for a single sentence you have written 8 lines for single sentence enhance the length of ans these are a bit short single sentence ans is incorrect format so marks deducted.

be careful about the basic rules of comprehension. 6/20