

The history is <sup>reflected</sup> full of those <sup>such</sup> successful people, who start their life journey from <sup>in extremely difficult circumstances</sup> very difficult situations, and later on they consider among the successful and well-known persons <sup>of the world</sup>

<sup>translate word to word this sentence</sup> You are not ever gain success, honour and fame free of cost, you only gain wealth free of cost, if that wealth belongs to your <sup>desires/ necessities</sup> ancestors. You <sup>can</sup> only buy worldly facilities from money but not buy happiness. Some times to gain honour we spend decads but become dishonoured or controversial in a moment.

context of urdu sentence has been altered translate word to word not satisfactory 4/10