

M. Ishaan

14,06,2023

Precis and Composition

Title: Art as a market commodity

Art has long been dealt with like a trading good. Individuals and profitseekers from various segments of the society have played a their role in furnishing this market. The trade touched its peak during the 1980s when a number of elite businessmen, mostly from Japan, showed interest in art pieces. Moreover, ethical pleas enormously added into the market value of art pieces. One such plea is that such works are a "global heritage". Notwithstanding, an art work's value comes from its market worth; that is why every person

Good relevant title

To transform Art into a commercial commodity

Do not extract terms from the passage of the globe cannot afford it. Most of the time, museums also lack the capacity to afford masterpieces. As a result, art ultimately ends up in private hands.

Total words: around 325

Final draft: 115 words

Question 3

Question 1:

Answer: Claus Schenk von Stauffenberg was a General in the German army. He is known for committing an attempt for killing Hitler by placing a bomb.

Question 2:

Answer: The film "Valkyrie" is to the extent the plot is concerned;

however, it fails to depict a true sketch of Stauffenberg who inspired many of the politicians and generals who saw him as a future chief of staff. ¹⁶ The film fails in presenting the charisma he contained: of labbed as medieval knight.

Question 3

Answer: The plot, in the opinion of the writer, was justified as it tried to subvert the emergency plan of Hitler. It would have offered a quite different form of Germany had the plot been successful. It would be a step towards a more just Germany.

Question 3:

Answer: The passage uses

contrasted and complementary sentiments. It complements Stauffenberg's character by comparing him to a medieval knight, a perfect character for Ditcher and Helden traditions, and as a future chief of staff. Moreover, the passage contrasts Stauffenberg with a ~~and~~ brutal Hitler. It also contrasts a possible success of the coup and a better Germany in consequence with Hitler's bleak Germany.

Question 4

Answer:

If Stauffenberg had survived, two possibilities would have been there. First, he might have had a strike to kill Hitler and grip the power. Second, he would have fled possibly organize a rebellion or seek foreign support. In such a case, Hitler would not have lagged behind too.

Question no 4

The few

~~(1) Few people were attended the meeting.~~

3

(2) Neither the father nor the son wear glasses.

She is the most

~~(3) She is more beautiful than either of us.~~

(4) Neither road leads to the station.

None

~~(5) Neither of them was ready to do his work.~~

Question no 5

(A) One day walking together up a hill, I said to Friday, "Do you not wish to be ⁱⁿ your own country?

"Yes," he said, "I miss it." "What would you do if you go back," said I. ³ "Would you turn wild and eat men's flesh again." He looked full of concern and, while shaking his head, said, "No." ⁴ I was glad to hear this as we gradually kept climbing towards the top.

(B)

1) Pakistan is to ~~the west of~~ India.

2) She died ~~of~~ hunger.

3) She said it ~~on~~ my face.

4) I ~~to~~ looked this word in dictionary, but I still don't understand it.

5) I would rather be singing in a bad relationship.

Questio no 6

11) The murderer is in the goal for 10 days.
I have the goal to educate my town's kids.

12) The minute he entered the room, a complete silence spread all over.

A minute drop of water has become as precious a coin of gold.

13) The bow which was used by Mongolians struck farther than that used by the Turks. We should only bow to Allah only.

(4)

(A) Only top government officials have access to classified documents.

Excessive use of water is leading a number of species to extinction.

⊗

(B)

(i) Just as we came in sight of the valley, Jamil met us and said I agreed that the valley all very fine, but he asked us if we knew that there was nothing to eat. ~~Nonsense~~
~~we could~~

(ii) Nonsense; we could anything there.

(iii) The brown bread was two months old, and there was nothing else but potatoes.

(iv) There must have been milk

though.
Hee agree-affirmed that there was milk.

Question 7

~~Some books are often said to changed the world.~~

~~Those books are chosen-picked by intellectuals. However, where if some books change the world,
there are also those books which~~

~~mislead the world into backwardness. It can be seen from the publishing of books in any society ^{as to} whether they published books are those which change
the world or want to chain
the world in the backward low standards. From the same perspective, if we analyze the books
published in Pakistan, we come~~

Some books have often changed

Plz do not attempt by word translation

to see these books are influencing the emotion of people with religious biases, sectarian zeal, and unlimited national pride. This mentality is visible in Pakistani society of the time.

Try to write well connected paragraphs