

Plz avoid unnecessary details

Focus on your work patterns

Do not write exact details

Try to focus to represent original idea in your own words

Ensure it 1/3rd of the original passage

To write in your own words as much as possible

This passage is about Art has become a commercial activity

art has degenerated into a commercial venture

Composition:

Please read the message

Try to answer the question keeping in view the relevance and context of the passage clear

Avoid inclusion of your own ideas unless asked for

Keep the relevance at the highest level

what the writer is asking the answer that question

Translation

Please do not attempt word by word

Attempt it in figurative and proverbial expression

Do not compromise on the tone of the passage

Avoid complex sentences write simple sentences

Q5a Punctuate the following.

One day, walking together up a hill, I said to Friday, "Do you not wish to be in your own country again?" "Yes" he said, "I wish it." "What would you do there if you were ever to go back?" I said, "I would turn wild and eat man's flesh again." He looked full of concern and while shaking his head, said, "No." I was glad to hear this as we gradually kept climbing towards the top.

Q5b Rewrite the sentences.

- i. She died of hunger.
- ii. Send this letter to this address.
- iii. She said it to my face.
- iv. I rather be single than in a bad relationship.
- v. I looked this word up in the dictionary.

Q6a Use words in sentences.

i Goal :- His goal is to become the President of the company in the next ten years.

Goal :- The striker scored a last minute goal to secure victory for his team.

ii Access :- The government is responsible for providing access to clean drinking water to all the citizens.

Excess :- His life of luxury and excess contributed to his downfall.

iii Minute :- His success lies in his paying attention to even the most minute details.

Minute :- The student arrived five minutes before the start of class.

iv. Tyze - The ~~base~~ tyze punctured after running over a sharp object on the road.

Tire :- He was tired after a long day of trekking in the mountains

v. bow :- Muslims believe in one God, they don't bow down to anyone else.

bow :- The bow event required
 all the participants to wear a bow tie.

bow :- He knows he hit the bullseye as soon as the arrow left his bow.

Q66 Direct / Indirect.

We met jamnal just as we came in sight of the valley. He admitted that the valley was very fine but enquired <sup>blame us</sup> whether we knew that there was nothing to eat. We questioned his lack of sense and told him that we could eat anything we wanted. He told us that the brown bread was 2 months old and there was nothing else but potatoes. To this we enquired ~~if there~~ ~~must be milk~~ if there was any milk. He replied ~~affirmatively~~.

7. TRANSLATION

It is often said about certain books that they have transformed the world. Such books are selected by the intelligentsia upon their own preference and ~~according to~~ Plz listen voice note the circumstances. While books can bring a positive change in the world, there are some books which lead the world ~~to~~ ✓ and are responsible for ~~the~~ its ~~total~~ regression. The books which are being published in any society can discuss whether they have the capacity to bring positive 3 change or will they allow the society to remain in the shackles of archaic ~~tradition~~ ✗. If we examine the books being published in Pakistan from this point of ~~view~~ ✗, we come to ~~conclude~~ ✗ that these books are ~~fueling~~ ✗ people's emotions with religious discrimination, sectarianism and jingoism. Such mentality is being manifested in Pakistan today.

Q2

Precis

~~Q2~~ The Art as a commercial activity by billionares.

Inspite of having a spiritual genesis, art soon transformed into a business where, those involved, used it to gain material wealth and fame. The fashion of commercialization of paintings became more pronounced in the 1980s, when such Japanese individuals bought them at insane amounts <sup>of money</sup> which resulted in the disappearance of these works from public eye. Many people since then have made It does not convey any sense requests to ~~the~~ owners of the art ~~that~~ to ~~the~~ put it back on display, but to no avail. Great art will continue to mutate into a commercial ~~entity~~.

enterprise because its worth can only be assessed by its material value. and common people do not have the resources to buy it. But it will keep on benefiting all those involved whenever it is traded privately.

Q3

Comprehension

i Who was Stauffenberg?

Claus Schenk von Stauffenberg was a Colonel in the German army. He was the mastermind behind the plan to assassinate Hitler, which eventually failed.

He was ~~eventually~~ later executed by a firing squad on the orders of General Fromm.

Good try to explain more

Q2 How far the movie ----

The movie "Valhalla" gives an authentic account of the events that transpired but fails to ~~communicate~~ portray the ethical and political malfeasance ~~which Germany~~ had to face, had the ~~assassination~~ assassination been successful.

Good very good Keep relevancy like this

Moreover it does not delve deep into stature and personality of Stauffenberg. Nor does it examine the reasons behind his intentions

Q3 Was the Plot justified...?

The writer is of the view that Stauffenberg's plan was a "stroke of genius", because ~~the final~~ plan of defending Berlin against an uprising and turned it into a plan of taking over Germany after the assassination of Hitler

No plz read the passage and answer again

Q4 What kind of emotions/sentiments

The complimentary and contrasting emotions/sentiments evoked in the passage are the following

- i- One should always do what one believes is right, even though he knew that chances of his survival were limited, Stauffenberg carried through with his plan. His only hope was to, one day, see a better Germany.

U r relevant in your discussion

5

Q5. If Stauffenberg had survived the war he would have gone on to become the next military chief. Hitler and Goebbels alike revered him. Even Hitler believed him to be the personification of a German hero.

hero.

Write well connected sentences